

Computer Science Students Achievement Microsoft Certifications

When a country has the skill and self-confidence to take action against its biggest problems, it makes outsiders eager to be a part of it. (Bill Gates)

All achievements in life come from hard work, inspiration, and lots of motivation. In December 2020, Microsoft in collaboration with HEC initiated a certification program for specific universities. I am pleased to announce that many students from the Computer Science Department of MNSUAM achieved Microsoft Certifications in multiple domains. This is an exciting news for the students and university. Microsoft certified students are now preferable to take part in various programs offered by tech companies that open up new opportunities for their success. The Microsoft Student Ambassador Mr. Shaheer Khan (MSCS, MNSUAM) and faculty of Computer Science is motivated to boost the progress of students not only in academia but also in improving their skillset leading to success in future endeavors. Students who received certificates are listed below with name, roll number, semester, program, and certificate type:
